PART II: SUMMARY OF DISPUTE AND FINDINGS

Dates of Service		CPT Code(s) or Description	Amount in Dispute	Amount Due
From	To
7-26-04	8-16-04	Inpatient Hospitalization	$53,523.32	$0.00

PART III: REQUESTOR'S POSITION SUMMARY

The following claim had a DX code of 821.50 which is a trauma claim. The total billed amount was $316,173.95. I am requesting that this claim be paid at 85% of billed charges do to trauma. The pt was in such a severe case, that he passed away. We do not feel that less than 68% of the billed charges is acceptable for a trauma case of this nature.

PART IV: RESPONDENT'S POSITION SUMMARY

Position statement was not submitted.

PART V: MEDICAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION REVIEW SUMMARY, METHODOLOGY, AND/OR EXPLANATION

This dispute relates to inpatient services provided in a hospital setting with reimbursement subject to the provisions of Rule 134.401 (Acute Care Inpatient Hospital Fee Guideline). In this particular admission, the principle diagnosis code was 801.26, 518.0 related to trauma care for closed skull base fracture, coma and pulmonary collapse. Pursuant to Rule 134.401(c)(5), the reimbursement for the entire admission shall be paid at a fair and reasonable rate.

Determining the "fair and reasonable" reimbursement can be difficult. In this case, it appears that neither the requestor nor the respondent have persuasively shown that their position represents the appropriate amount. Therefore, an alternate approach is needed to determine the reimbursement amount.

Based on the data contained in the Commission's medical billing database for dates of service in 2004, trauma admissions were reimbursed, on average, at 48.2% of the total charges (total payments divided by total charges). Applying this same formula to this specific case appears to be a sound method to determine the appropriate fair and reasonable reimbursement.

Accordingly, the health care provider is entitled to a total reimbursement amount of $151,763.49. This was calculated by multiplying the total changes of $316,173.95by 48.2%.

Since the carrier has previously paid $215,224.53 the health care provider is not entitled to additional reimbursement

PART VI: COMMISSION DECISION

Based upon the review of the disputed healthcare services, the Medical Review Division has determined that the requestor is not entitled to additional reimbursement.
